

Trends in Information Technology

2007

77,660 Employed
$33.36/hour Median

2017

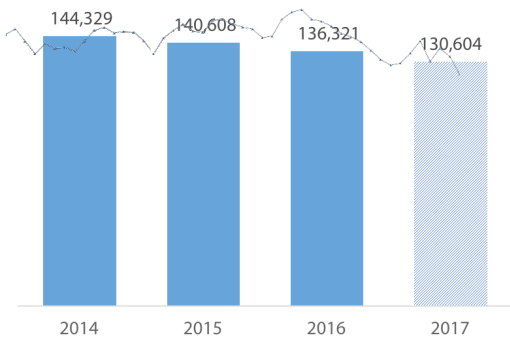

97,680 Employed
$39.75/hour Median

2024

101,315 Employed
Total Openings: 22,430

Computer & Mathematical Occupations Historical & Projected Growth

Demand for IT Professionals in Minnesota
Based on Volume of Online Job Postings

Top Required Skills and Certifications of Information Technician Careers in Minnesota, 2017

Baseline Skills

- 1) Communication skills
- 2) Troubleshooting
- 3) Project Management
- 4) Experience in software, web, or app development
- 5) Business Requirements Gathering

Character Traits

- 1) Problem-Solver
- 2) Detail-Oriented
- 3) Self-Motivated
- 4) Creativity
- 5) Work Independently

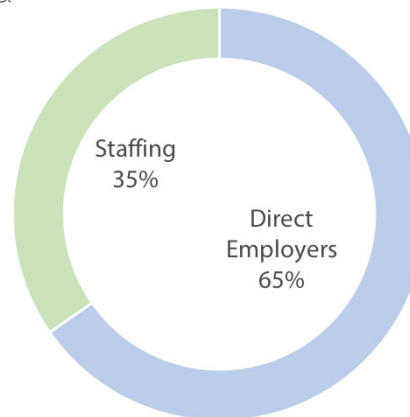

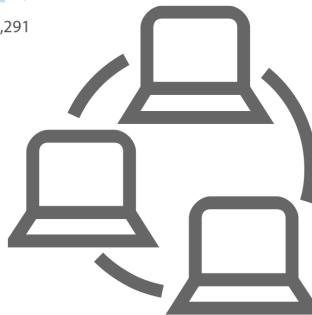

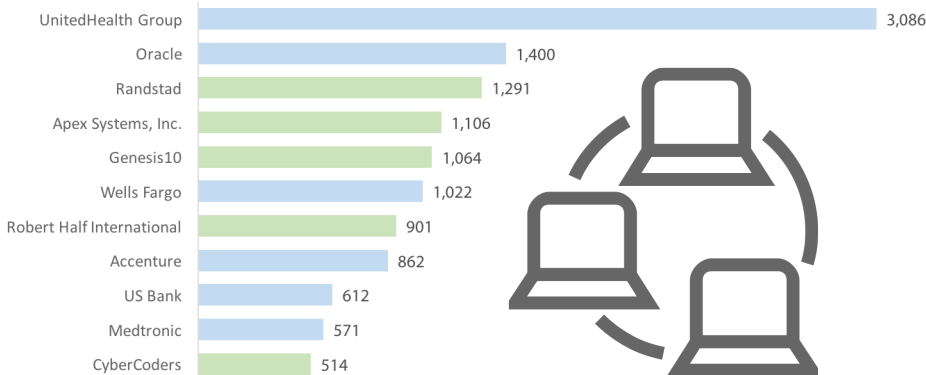

Software & Computer Skills

- 1) Structured Query Language
- 2) Java
- 3) JavaScript
- 4) Hypertext Markup Language
- 5) Microsoft .NET Framework

Certifications

- 1) Project Management Professional
- 2) Certified Scrum Master
- 3) Certified Information Systems Security Professional
- 4) Business Process Management Programming Languages
- 5) Enterprise Project Management

Top Employers Seeking Talent In 2017 in Minnesota

RealTime Talent

Using data to build the world's best workforce

Sources: TalentNeuron Recruit aggregate online job postings. www.wantedanalytics.com accessed August 23, 2017. Counts of job postings in 2017 by employer were available January 1 - June 30, 2017. Includes staffing agencies and positions posted anonymously on sites including Craigslist and Thumbtack. Employment counts from Bureau of Labor Statistics Occupational Employment Statistics (OES) for Minnesota, 2007 and 2017 and Employment Outlook 2024.